MAURITIUS

PEARL OF THE INDIAN OCEAN

The legendary island of Mauritius is home to an exceptional lifestyle. This global tourist destination is renowned for its many wonders, which will amaze you.

Its flag's colours perfectly reflect the country's history and authenticity:

- Red recalls the heroic struggle of the Mauritian people in March 1968 for independence and freedom.
- Blue stands for the breathtaking beauty of the lagoon and the Indian Ocean.
- Yellow evokes the island's newly acquired freedom and prosperity after its independence.
- Green symbolizes one of the country's main assets: agriculture, which colours the landscape all year round.

In short, the island of Mauritius is a jewel in the heart of the Indian Ocean, guaranteed to seduce you with its authentic charm.

LEGEND HILL

A CULINARY UNIVERSE WITH A SIGNATURE

GLENN VIEL

***MICHELIN CHEF

Leading the three-Michelin-starred L'Oustau de Baumanière since 2015, Glenn Viel is a renowned French chef and a recipient of a Michelin Green Star for his dedication to sustainable gastronomy, making him a significant figure in contemporary French culinary arts.

At Legend Hill, he crafts two distinct dining experiences :

Le 1812, the gourmet restaurant, signature creations become stories on a plate, inviting guests to a unique sensory journey woven with authenticity and emotion.

BVIEW, the bistronomic restaurant, offers generous and indulgent cuisine designed to awaken both nostalgia and appetite, all within a warm and serene atmosphere

Chef Glenn Viel crafts the menus and has entrusted the kitchen management to the duo of Joel Trejo, Executive Chef, and Julie Le Gall, Pastry Chef, whom he has mentored for over 10 years. Together, they share their expertise and train local talents, so that this excellence continues to thrive in Mauritius.
